

Are you ready for retirement?

Article from insights.bt.com.au

Retirement takes planning. Yes, financial planning is essential to have the kind of retirement you want and you also have to be ready for the time and change of pace that life after work offers. Because while having all day, every day to yourself can sound idyllic while you're busy at work, the reality can be quite different if you haven't prepared for it.

Carol, a primary school teacher, took over twenty years and two attempts to be really ready for her retirement.
